President's Report 2013

With great pleasure I present for consideration the Annual Report of the Oceania Tennis Federation (OTF). 2013 marked my first year as President of the OTF, replacing Geoff Pollard who had held the position since the inauguration of the Federation in 1993.

2013 has been a substantial learning process personally for me, understanding the challenges of each of the 20 team members making up the OTF, their interactions and their relationship with the International Tennis Federation.

As one of 6 Regional Tennis Federations recognised by the ITF, the OTF is charged with the responsibility of overseeing the development of tennis within its defined geographic area. The geographical distances, the cultural differences and different statuses of tennis in the Nations means there are many challenges for the OTF and its member nations.

As with all tennis nations, the development of the game involves both holding and participating in competitions and trying to create role models which drive participation numbers and vice versa.

In 2013 our Pacific Oceanic Davis Cup Team competed in Asia/Oceania Group III. Key player unavailability meant the bleeding of two new players, Gilles de Gouy (PYF) and William O'Connell (USA). The Tie was held in Dubai in 40C heat in September after the ITF postponed the original venue in Myanmar due to security concerns. There was much to celebrate with both Brett Baudinet (CI) and Daniel Llenas(GUM) having a 100% winning record in doubles but unfortunately despite their efforts the team was relegated to the play-offs after the round robin and finally to Group IV in 2014.

In the inaugural Asia-Pacific Tennis Week held in the second week of the Australian Open, a Pacific Oceania team aptly named the 'Pacific Oceania Dolphins' participated strongly captained by Cyrille Mainguy. While the competition was strong, our team competed proudly in what was an outstanding opportunity for all players across Pacific Oceania to play in the team representative of the Pacific and New Caledonian players. A special thanks to Richard Breen of Unipro Productions in Fiji who created and designed our very special team uniform.

2013 marked our first year without ANZ as a sponsor of our many tennis programs. In 2013 the program followed the concept of Tennis Tens (a modified form of tennis specifically aimed at 6-10 year old players) produced by the ITF and also known in Australia as Hotshots. This is a very successful program all around the world and we are hopeful it will drive participation in each of our nations and particularly through the schools. Thank you to Tennis Australia who have provided equipment for this program.

In 2013 Gene Ridgway retired as the ITF regional development officer and we thank him for his service and his frank explanation and identification of the challenges faced in this role. Gene has been replaced by Darran Wrighton and we wish Darran well in his role.

I wish to thank John Shannon (Fiji) and David Smith (NZ) who have capably and efficiently assisted me and the OTF in their position as joint Executive Officers.

In particular my thanks to David Smith who did a wonderful job creating and monitoring a website for the OTF which all of our members can input and enjoy.

Thanks also to Bruce Osborne from Tennis Australia who has assisted me in a number of the administrative tasks and understanding the ITF's charter and mission.

The OTF member nations need to come together in the hope that we can positively support each other and develop tennis in this region. This will be one of the many challenges for 2014

OTF Executive Officer's Report 2013

Overview

If there was one constant over the last year, it has been that it has been a year of change. At the AGM in Melbourne in January, the OTF welcomed a new executive with a new President (Steve Healy), a new Vice-President (Cyrille Mainguy), a new Secretary-General (Dan O'Connell), two new committee members (Neil Adsett and Torgun Smith) plus two new Joint-Executive Officers (David Smith and John Shannon).

Several months later, at the ITF's Annual General Meeting in Paris on Friday 12th July, Steve Healy, President of the Oceania Tennis Federation was one of 13 candidates elected to the new ITF Board of Directors for the period 2013-15. This centenary AGM celebrated 100 years since the ITF was founded in 1913 and during the meeting the former OTF President, Geoff Pollard, was made an Honorary Life Vice President of the ITF.

Then, on the 1st October, Darran Wrighton, commenced as the new Pacific Oceania Development Officer. Darran, whilst UK born, has spent most of his tennis career in Australia, and brought with him an enormous wealth of experience in managing tennis facilities and implementing coaching and competition programmes for all age groups and abilities.

Additionally the OTF launched their new look website which can be accessed through the following link <http://www.oceaniatennis.com/newsite/>

Finance and Funding Support

The OTF's finances, detailed further in this report, sit in a reasonably healthy position though will be continually challenged due to the narrow funding streams. With the grateful support of ONOC and the ITF, the OTF has been able to develop the participation of tennis across the regions and equally assist the elite programme. Financial support has been provided by the OTF to support the Mini Tennis Programme in several countries though a key sponsor is still sought to geographically develop this programme further across the Region.

The main focus of OTF continues to be the development of tennis participation and the provision of opportunities for the best in the Pacific to further develop their talents. The extensive programs would not be able to operate without the support from ITF, the Grand Slam Development Fund and Oceania National Olympic Committees (ONOC).

The ITF and ONOC provide matching grants and this Supports Davis Cup, the now increasing ITF Junior Programmes and Competitions in the Pacific, the Pacific coaching programme by Development Officers, plus additionally a major contribution to supporting the fees for scholarship students at the Lautoka Regional Training Centre. The OTF is grateful to ONOC for their past and ongoing continued support.

The Grand Slam Development Fund provides very important support in the competitions area for Pacific Junior players. The GSDF funds the Pacific Oceania Junior

Championships and three qualifying events and also the annual teams to Australia and New Zealand, providing vital competition opportunities in Pacific Oceania. Special emphasis has been placed by the ITF Development Fund on junior tennis where regional tournaments have been developed and teams of your players compete outside their own region. This programme continues across the Pacific to provide opportunities for the best players at 18, 16, 14 and 12 age groups. Additionally this year the ITF Grand slam Development Fund provided a $15,000 grant to the American Samoa Tennis Association to help towards the cost of resurfacing the 6 courts at their National Tennis Centre

International Tennis Federation

OTF continues to work very closely with ITF Director of Development Dave Miley, Frank Couraud and his team in London and with the ITF Development Officer Pacific Oceania Darran Wrighton on a variety of projects including the Regional Training Centre, ITF development tours and the ITF Pacific Oceania Junior Championships. These activities are outlined in detail elsewhere in the report.

Frank Couraud, the Development Projects Administrator, attended the OTF Executive Meeting in August in Fiji and discussed primarily options for the various pathways for elite players and the pursuit of excellence in coaching programmes;

Membership

The OTF currently has 20 member Nations as detailed earlier in this report.

In closing I would also like to record a debt of gratitude to Barry McMillan for his efficient and timely auditing of the Annual Accounts.

Tennis Fiji Jacks of Fiji Tennis Open - 2013

The Tennis Fiji-Jacks of Fiji Tennis Open 2013 was held in early June at the Denerau Racquet and Sports Club with two players becoming two-time Men's and Ladies Open Champions. Cyril Jacobe (VAN) emulated the feat he achieved in 2006 to become the Fiji Open 2013 champion beating William O'Connell (USA) in the final 61,64. Similarly in the Ladies Singles Open Final, Marcia Tere- Apisah (PNG) repeated what she had achieved in 2009, beating the defending champion, Tarani Kamoe (FIJ) 46, 64, 62.

In the 32 events, there were a total of 314 matches played over five days (though one was washed out by torrential rain-so in effect four days) comprising 3,712 games. Some intermittent rain, unusual for June, meant that some matches that were scheduled for the Denerau grass courts were transferred to the synthetic courts at the Nadi Sports Centre. This necessitated some matches being played as pro sets to ensure that the event would be completed.

Women's Tennis Association (WTA)

In 2013, 20 year old Steffie Carruthers (SAM) decided to make a career in professional tennis. Coached by Carlos Casely, she has been playing tournaments mainly on the hard and clay court of the USA and South America.

Australian Tennis League (ATL)

Eight Men's and eight Women's teams vied for the winner's purse of $20,000 when the ATL commenced in the 2nd week of the Australian Open at Melbourne Park. This event uses a unique match format of the best of 3 short sets with a short tie-break at 3-3. There are no service lets with either partner in doubles, which has a no ad scoring, able to hit a net cord.

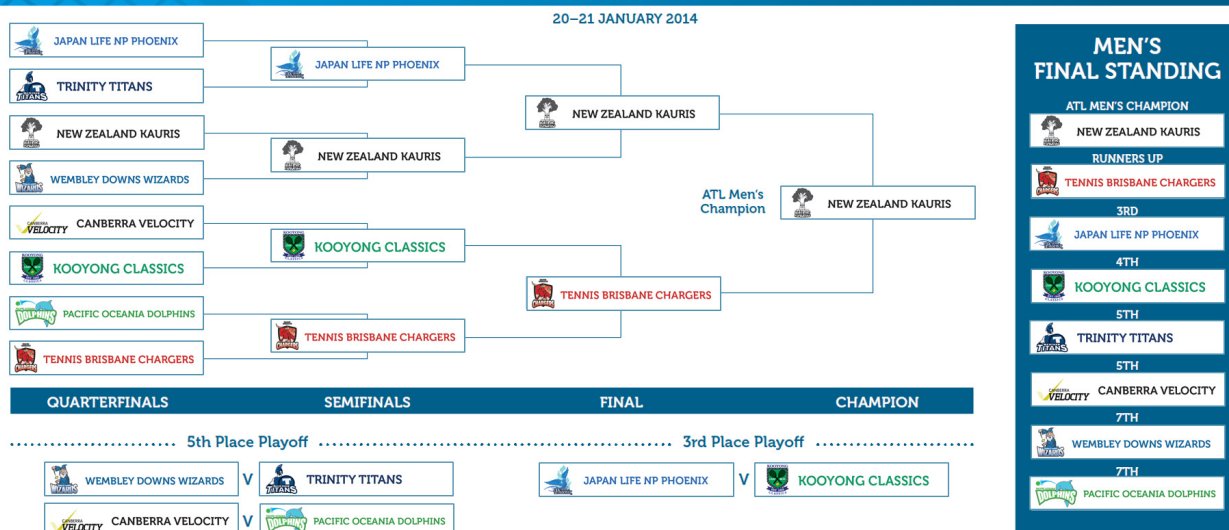

The Pacific Oceania team were faced with some of the very best players from Australia and New Zealand with Nikolas N'Godrela, in particular, holding his own against players he came up against in singles and doubles. In the final analysis the team came a creditable 8th.

The Team comprised L to R Daniel Llarenas (GUM), Cyrille Mainguy (VAN-Captain), Sebastien Baldovini (CAL-Manager), Aymeric Mara (VAN); Nikolas N'Godrela (CAL), Cyril Jacobe (VAN).

Prior to this event the team played a warm up event in Shepparton, Victoria with Nikolas N'Godrela convincingly winning the singles final 61,61 against the 4th seed, Ryan Draffin from Australia and then teaming with Cyril Jacobe (VAN) to win the Doubles Final.
